

Rewilding the Writer's Soul #8

Creative Visibility

Purpose: A practical ceremony for boosting visibility

 You'll Need:

A small candle (or tealight)

A notebook or ledger

Your computer/phone/tablet

Steps:

- Sit in silence. Light a candle. Think of your story.
- 📖 Ask yourself: What are the deepest themes it carries? Who is the reader longing for this story?
- 🔍 Open Amazon. Type those phrases into the search bar - what other stories live there?
- ✍️ Use Publisher Rocket or a notebook to write what you discover.
- Update one keyword today, not all seven. Small spells build big magick.

Rewilding the writer's soul means reclaiming the tools we thought belonged only to the marketers.

It means saying: This, too, is sacred.
